

SWANN ORDERS INQUIRY ON NEW COMPLAINT OF WIRE-TAPPING ABUSES

District Attorney Swann, aroused over complaints made to him regarding the tapping of telephone wires, announced to-day that he will begin an investigation into the practice and prosecute those who have been guilty of listening in for personal reasons. The District Attorney has been told that divorce evidence was obtained through listening in on telephone conversations by operatives of private detective agencies.

Mr. Swann has been considering the advisability of opening an investigation for several days and came to a decision after a visit paid him by Peter J. Brady, Secretary of the Allied Printing Trades Council. Brady told the District Attorney that the wires of various labor organizations had been tapped.

"It is my suspicion," said Brady, "that employers of labor hired private detectives to keep tabs on labor organizations and these detectives through connivance with police officials were permitted to tap telephone wires."

GIRL CONFRONTS HER FATHER WITH HIS TWO WIVES

Then Calls Policeman and Has Him Arrested on a Charge of Bigamy.

Three women confronted Charles Lee MacCarthy, a real estate agent, when he entered his home, No. 101 East One Hundred and Twenty-third Street, last night. One of them was a patient-faced, gray-haired, plainly-dressed little woman who, almost thirty years ago, he had made his wife; the second was a comely, black-haired girl of twenty-two, whom he is said to have married about two years ago and who carried in her arms a year-old baby; the remaining member of the trio was MacCarthy's daughter—herself a married woman—by his first wife, to whose detective work the father's predicament was due.

The daughter summoned a policeman and had her father arrested. MacCarthy was arraigned before Magistrate Breen in Yorkville Court this morning and was held in $2,000 bail on the charge of bigamy for further examination.

MacCarthy is about fifty years old, and short of stature. According to the story told in court, he married his first wife, who was Miss Emma Jane Dodge of Bayville, on June 3, 1887. In recent years the family resided at No. 74 West One Hundred and Third Street, where the first Mrs. MacCarthy still lives. About three years ago MacCarthy began absconding himself from home for three and four weeks at a time, explaining to his wife and daughter that his real estate interests carried him to various parts of the country. May 1, 1915, according to the police, he left home and failed to return or communicate with his family in any way.

Three months ago his daughter saw him on the street with an attractive-looking girl. They eluded her, but yesterday she trailed the young woman to the One Hundred and Twenty-third Street address. The latter said that her maiden name was Mae Elizabeth Sweeney and that she had been married to MacCarthy on Oct. 23, 1914, at the "Little Church Around the Corner."

NO DEMAREST DIVORCE.

Action Brought by Hoboken School Superintendent Is Thrown Out.
NEWARK, N. J., June 13.—Vice Chancellor Foster to-day decided against A. J. Demarest, Superintendent of Public Schools of Hoboken, in his suit for divorce brought against his wife, Fanny Taylor Demarest. The court also exonerated Edward W. Oliver, Principal of a Public School in Hoboken, from the charges made against him. The case, the Court said, was based upon suspicion, and while some of the suspicions were warranted, some others were unwarranted.

ATHENA UNDERWEAR

FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Athens underwear is truly fashioned and tailored to fit. It is designed not merely to approach, but to realize the outlines of a woman's form.

The shaping—the tailoring—is not confined to any one part. Note the shaped shoulders, the proper fullness of bust—the perfect conformation of legs.

The patented seat is the most remarkable advancement ever made in underwear designing; by a unique device the seat in Athena has been shaped to fit the figure snugly in any posture. There can be no gaping—no bulging.

If you will see Athena underwear, you will revise your ideas on the underwear subject.

Athens is sold only at Saks in New York
